United Kingdom
Prime Minister Theresa May
Biography: Theresa May

- First Female Prime Minister since Margaret Thatcher in 1979
- Studied Geography at St Hugh’s College, Oxford University
- She is part of the Conservatory Party (also called Tory Party)
- Appointed Home Secretary in 2010 until she became Prime Minister
- Longest-serving Conservative Home Secretary for over a century
Video: “No unnecessary delays in invoking article 50”
Wants to reduce net migration down to below 100,000 a year

Currently it’s at 330,000 a year, of which 184,000 are EU citizens, and 188,000 are from outside the EU

A new rule barring British citizens from bringing their spouses or children into Britain unless they earned more than £18,600, regardless of how much their non-British spouse earned
• Believes Britain should withdraw from the European convention on human rights
• “The ECHR can bind the hands of parliament, adds nothing to our prosperity, makes us less secure by preventing the deportation of dangerous foreign national…”
Actions as a Leader: Business & Education

- Business & Workers’ Rights
  - Making working rights as corner stone of office position
  - “Under my leadership, the Conservative party will put itself – completely, absolutely, unequivocally – at the service of working people.”

- Education
  - Raise caps on tuition fees
  - She voted for them to rise since 2010
  - Supporter of Michael Gove’s free schools endeavor