Globalization & International Relations

Global Connect @ UCI
What has impacted all modes of 21st century communication?
Why do you know these logos?
What regions of the world are connected to these images?
What do these religious symbols stand for?
Influential people of the world: Do you recognize them?
Influential people of the world: Do you recognize them?
How would you define a multinational corporation?
Where does Public Health exist?

WHO Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) Dashboard
Data last updated: 2020/7/16, 6:03pm CEST

226,181
new cases*

13,378,853
confirmed cases*

580,045
deaths*
Match nations to headlines around the world

- France
- Chile
- North Korea
- United States
- Mexico

1. [Country] a World Cup Champion that stood above it all in Russia.
2. [Country] had a 7.4 magnitude quake that shook Latin America.
3. [Country] experienced politicians and celebrities hacked on Twitter from an unknown source.
What is the United Nations?

Can you name world issues the U.N. is currently addressing?
What are NGOs?

- Amnesty International
- Oxfam
- American Red Cross
- Habitat for Humanity
Semester I: Globalization
What do you think “Globalization” refers to?

- Advanced Technology & the Information Revolution
- “Borderless” issues that impact people and places all over the Globe
- Current Events
Globalization

Globalization is the process by which national economies, politics, cultures, and societies become integrated with those of other nations around the world.

The Modern World by Ellis and Esler
Globalization & You

- The future is here.
- It’s multiethnic, multicultural, and multilingual.
- As future high school graduates, will you be ready for it?
- How will you prepare yourself?
Your 21\textsuperscript{st} Century World

In your adult careers and personal life, you will:

- Work remotely and utilize media literacy
- Work for international companies.
- Manage employees from other cultures and countries.
- Collaborate with people all over the world in joint ventures.
- Compete with people on the other side of the world for jobs.
- Tackle global problems, such as terrorism, climate change, pollution, and public health.
Semester II: International Relations
Globalization & International Relations

This course will allow you to look at issues, events, trends and global relations between countries that are influencing the development of today's world... the world of the 21st century.
Social Sciences

• Though you will be introduced to the historical background behind current events and issues, this class is not a history course.
• This is a social science class.
• What are the social sciences?
UCI’s School of Social Sciences

Majors in Social Sciences:

- Anthropology
- Chicano/Latino Studies
- Economics
- Cognitive Sciences
- International Studies
- Political Science
- Language Sciences
- Psychology
- Social Policy & Public Service
- Sociology
What does UCI’s School of Social Sciences have to do with this class?

Your teacher has graciously welcomed a team of UCI professors, undergraduates, and graduate students to join him or her in presenting you with a cutting-edge course on globalization.
Global Connect @ UCI is a special team of professors and students who will serve as academic connectors.
Course Format

• PowerPoint Lecture

• Geography Adventure

• Interactive Workshops

• Reading & Writing Your Way to Global Understanding
What are your responsibilities?

• Be an active participant of your school and college student team
• Act as future college students by giving your full and respectful attention to the speakers
• Contribute to discussions and workshops
• Complete all assigned journal assignments
• Submit completed course projects