- Understand Your Responsibilities as a “Global Citizen”
- Understand Major Global Issues
- Understand Your Education and Future into the 21st Century through 2050
The Global Citizen of the 21st Century

• America’s “Global Citizen” of the 21st century must ask the following questions:

  – What unique responsibilities do I have as a member of the most powerful and wealthiest nation in the world?

  – Why should I know what is happening globally, care about it, and perhaps make a difference by making the world a better place?

  – What educational goals must I set for myself to live a productive and secure life in the 21st century?

Core Questions

• What is Globalization?

• How does it affect the United States? California? My community? Me in particular?

• Why does it matter that we understand the processes and consequences of globalization?
Defining Globalization in the Social Sciences

- “As a result of technological and social change, human activities across regions and continents are increasingly being linked together”

- “A state of the world involving networks of interdependence at multicontinental distances...linked through flows of capital and goods, information and ideas, and people”

- The significance of today’s globalization is not its newness but that it reflects a sharp decline in the costs of global communication and transportation.
